Inspiring stories about personal change

The best inspirational films make an indelible impression on the viewer. In this selection I chose 35 - from Oscar winners to cult favorites, they are worthy of anyone's DVD collection. In an attempt to avoid making this list a cliché, I've chosen films you may not have seen before, and ones that may have slipped from your memory. As a result, you won't find certain well-known films below, such as Schindler's List, Forrest Gump and Shawshank Redemption. The exceptional films on offer should hopefully make up for it!

1. AmadeusPhoto credit: SourceThis wonderful period epic, loosely based on Mozart's genius, boasts fine performances and exceptional music. It was music I'd never heard. Filled with such longing, such unfulfilled longing. Description of Mozart's music.
2. Madness King GeorgePhoto Credit: Source George III loses his mind, throwing the government into chaos. Revolutionary medical man Dr Willis has been called upon to restore order in this brilliant drama. No life is without its regrets, but none is without its consolations. King George III.
3. Mary and MaxPhoto Credit: Source Quirky, Life-Affirming Clay Film. Two loners become pen friends and form a long-distance friendship. My fifth job was a garbage collector. I cleaned up after the mistakes and didn't have to talk to anyone. Sometimes I liked pretending to be an intergalactic robot. Max.
4. Princess MononokePhoto credit: SourceA sweeping masterpiece from Studio Ghibli. The young warrior of Ashitak is fighting to restore order between supernatural forces and the human world. This is what hate looks like! That's what he does when he catches you! Ashitaki.
5. Spirited AwayPhoto Credit: SourceSchoolgirl Chihiro is inadvertently transferred to the spirit world, forcing her to work in a Japanese bathhouse to regain her freedom. Once you meet someone, you never forget them. It only takes a while for your memories to come back. Advice for Chihiro.
6. The Kings of SummerPhoto credit: SourceThree teenagers, annoyed by their families, lead into the woods to live in the house they built, embracing life along the way. You're right, it's a classic kidnapping. They took our kids and canned goods and pasta. Frank, irritated parent.
7. RushPhoto Credit: SourceA's exciting account of the 1976 Formula One season James Hunt and Niki Lauda fought for the world title, with the latter overcoming a terrible calamity in the process. It is impossible to sweat through skin grafts, so sweat will never run into my eyes again, which is good for the driver. Lauda after the accident.
8. Punch-Drunk LovePhoto Credit: SourceA quirky romantic drama. Adam Sandler's eccentric loner Barry Egan is courted by the mysterious Lena Emily Watson. I have a lot of pudding, and in six to eight weeks it can be redeemed. So if you can just give me that much time, I think I can get enough mileage to go with you wherever you go. Barry Leni.
9. From Mice and MenPhoto Credit: SourceGary an excellent adaptation of John Steinbeck's classic novel. Strong will George, and the mentally incapacitated Lennie, travel around America like farm hands, dreaming of one day owning their own land.. We have a future. We have someone we can talk to, and that's what we care about. George.
10. The Diving Bell and the ButterflyPhoto credit: SourceBased on Jean-Dominique Bauby's book, this touching French film tells the story of his life after a paralyzing stroke. Suffering from locked-in syndrome, he still wrote a novel. I decided to stop taking pity. Apart from the eye, two things aren't paralyzed, my imagination and my memory. Bauby.
11. Squid and WhalePhoto Credit: SourceA couple divorce, forcing their children (Walt and Frank) to deal with psychological games erupting between their parents. We'd like to take a look at the knight's armor at the Met. A scary fish at the Natural History Museum. I've always been afraid of squid and whale fights. Walt.
12. The IllusionistPhoto credit: SourceSylvain Chomet's sublime animated story of an aspiring magician as he travels through Europe, bonding with a young fan along the way. Magicians don't exist. Magician's note.
13. AdaptationPhoto Credit: SourceAnxiety jahao Charlie Kaufman (Nic Cage) is a screenwriter adapting a difficult novel, becoming increasingly unstable during his attempts. All my problems and anxiety can be reduced to a chemical imbalance or some kind of wrong synapses. I have to help with that. But I'll still be ugly. Charlie.
14. Beasts of the

Southern WildPhoto credit: SourceThis fantasy drama centers around six-year-old Hushpuppy. As her community is plagued by environmental issues, she is learning to adapt to a new world. I see I'm a small part of a big, big universe, and that makes it right. Hushpuppy. 15. Life of PiPhoto Credits: Source Story of Pio's struggle for survival while stranded in the Pacific Ocean. The volatile Bengal tiger is his only company. A lifetime becomes an act of release, but what always hurts the most is not taking a moment to say goodbye. Pi.16. AwakeningPhoto Credit: Source Based on a book by neurologist Oliver Sacko. Robin Williams plays the introverted Dr Sayer, who discovers a drug that wakes up catatonic patients. There was another awakening; that the human spirit is more powerful than any drug—and that is what needs to be fed: work, play, friendship, family. These are the things that matter. Dr. Sayer.17. One Flew Over The Cuckoo's NestPhoto credit: SourceJack Nicholson stars ace Randal P. McMurphy. Maverick, he's faking insanity to avoid jail time in a mental institution, causing chaos in the process. What do you think, for Chrissake, you're crazy or something? You didn't! You! You're no crazier than your average asshole walking the streets. McMurphy.18. The Straight StoryPhoto credit: SourceWWII veteran Alvin hears his estranged brother has had a stroke, so he embarks on a 240-mile journey to see him — over his No one knows your life better than a brother who's close to your age. He knows who you are and what you're better than anyone. Alvin.19.
